For years, Heath's one goal was to get his education and help his younger siblings obtain theirs. Now God's provision has freed him to pursue other interests. He finds himself trying to reconcile his choice to be a landscaper against finding a job worthy of his expensive education.

As a teenager, Heath was attracted to Jane, but when it came down to choices, she made decisions that changed her life—and not for the better. She's back in his life, but can Heath get past his fears and trust God to give him the woman he loves?
