Vinaya Daily Essentials, this manual is for training monastic Sangha and is not written for laity. This text is specifically used for training "left home" Buddhists in the Mahayana Chinese Dharmagupta lineage and it is reflected in its content. This large print text is translated for native English Mahayana monastics to train alongside their Asian brothers or sisters using their Asian language and culture when they become a newly left home sramana or sramanika. Those who are interested in studying Buddhism and students that are not Sangha should buy this book to study how Sangha train. You will improve your cultural understanding of Buddhism, Triple Jewels, and our role as the Sangha Jewel.
