First Lady Audrey Graham is gone and her husband suffers from loneliness and the after-effects of his second stroke. Their son, Stiles, now minister of his father's church, is engaged to Detria and has found happiness at last—despite his heartbreaking divorce from Rena. Rena's now living in another state and has found a new love herself, Robert, though she resists his marriage proposals because she doesn't feel she could ever be completely forgiven for her past sins. Things take a turn for the worse when Stiles' father suffers another stroke and Detria has a miscarriage, and his faith is tested like never before. But who knows in whose arms he will land up in the page-turning conclusion to My Son's Wife series!
