Passover, the Spring festival of the Jewish People calls us to come closer to God. The Lord is the giver of the Spring harvest, our victories, all good gifts and our very life. God wants us to draw near to Him. Did you know there was a time the nation of Israel forgot the Passover? This book focuses on our relationship with God in a way to help us never forget His presence. This study, written from a Messianic perspective, includes insightful questions and new insights which will cause routine practices to be filled with meaning. This book can be read alone ... or shared in a group for an even better experience.
