Have you ever thought about blessing God? Probably not!

When most people think about blessings, they think about what kind of blessings they can get--a new car, a kinder husband, a better job, a healthier body. Now, God wants his children to have all kinds of blessings, but sometimes the blessings start coming to us--when we start blessing God first. But how do we bless God?

In this groundbreaking new book, insights into the ancient biblical practice of blessing God are offered clearly and practically. Once someone understands this concept, it transforms his or her life. A new appreciation of nature starts. An awareness of the presence of God in even the most mundane aspects of one's life elevates a person's existence and provides great joy. Life just gets better and better.

With examples from Scripture and Jewish tradition this book; teaches you the biblical formula used by the men and women of the Bible, including the Messiah; points you to new ways and reasons to praise the Lord, that you never thought of before; and enables you to grasp the Bible better than ever.
