What skills are essential to become a significant leader for God? What do I have to learn beyond godliness to impact dozens and even hundreds of people for Christ? Wouldn't it be great if you could learn in a condensed form what is involved in leading your ministry with a higher level of effectiveness? Men and women everywhere hunger to be strong Christian leaders and churches and ministries are screaming for leaders, but then nothing happens. Leadership is more than just want to. It involves the artful use of certain skills to get people, groups, and organizations moving forward. I invite you to learn what those basic skills are and to practice your use of them so that they will show up in your ministry environment. I have watched so many ministry leaders spend their time, energy, and passion on the wrong things and never fully realize their potential as leaders. I was compelled to write this book to focus leaders on what is indispensable and essential in the act of leading. Yes, there are other leadership skills than those mentioned in this book, but these are the core skills that highly-impacting leaders master.
