Annie is the very best nanny in the whole world, and it's been that way forever. But when Annie announces she's getting married, Emma panics. What will Emma do if Annie moves out? She won't be able to see her favorite nanny in the evenings anymore or visit her in the apartment upstairs. Then Emma's mother announces another change. She's pregnant! There are too many changes going on in Emma's life at once! The house is in an uproar with all the wedding planning, preparations for extra guests (Annie's five sisters and mother will be arriving from Ireland), and with Mom not feeling well. Somehow, Emma - and her brothers and sisters, too - manages to triumph over all these dilemmas, and discovers that although changes can be hard, they can be exciting, too
