Lar has a secret, his "different type of loving" with his increasingly distracted dominant girlfriend, which interferes with his ability to share his non-work life with coworkers. Alice, Lar's girlfriend, has several secrets: pressures at work and a promise made to her now-dead father have overtaken much of her life, and her long-term relationship is getting in the way; however she has a plan that can either rectify or ruin her and Lar; her friend Yo is part of her plan, and of course the murder over 20 years ago, whose disturbing sights and memories continue to leave her feeling vulnerable and troubled. Yo has a secret side of herself that she has not yet discovered but soon will. Rif had secrets all of his life, the least of which was selling pictures of drugged naked women to private buyers. His better secrets began over 20 years ago when he decided to hide a camera in his neighbor Alice's apartment. While Alice was exploring an long-known aspect of her sexuality with her first willing boyfriend, Riff discovered how to make some real money.
