Penguins are probably the world's most intriguing birds. They are easy to recognize with their short legged waddle and black-and-white coloring reminiscent of a tuxedo. National Geographic features a lively collection of photographs in Penguins 2015. Several penguin species, all photographed in their natural habitats, are featured including Emperor Penguins, Chinstrap Penguins, Gentoo Penguins, Adelie Penguins, Magellanic Penguins, and Rockhopper penguins. Each outstanding image in this award winning calendar is accompanied by fascinating National Geographic information and a large grid with moon phases and international holidays. Proceeds from the sale of this calendar support vital exploration, conservation, research, and education programs. Earth friendly, printed with soya-based inks on FSC certified paper.
